Dear Salma,
Last Friday, my family went for a walk in the mountains. We left home at seven and travelled by car. My father carried our lunch, and I carried a backpack with our water bottles.
The path was narrow, so we walked slowly together. We saw some birds and a small stream beside the rocks. My sister took photos of the birds with her camera. At eleven, we stopped under a tree and ate sandwiches.
After lunch, I drew the mountains in my notebook. Then we walked back to the car. My favourite part was seeing the stream because the water was so clear. I want to visit the mountains again.
Best wishes,
Hamad
